WELCOME

Hello and welcome to our historic Guildhall Arts Centre in the heart of Grantham.

The imposing Guildhall has served many purposes since it was built on its current St Peter's Hill site in 1866, including a courthouse and jail. For the last 25 years it has made a wonderfully evocative Arts Centre which, in conjunction with its sister facility in Stamford, plays host to more than a million visitors each year.

I would like to thank not only our team, ably led by Graham Burley, but also the many volunteers that help support this fantastic venue and help create such a unique community atmosphere. I often hear it said that visitors to the Guildhall Arts Centre in Grantham want to know more about our sister Arts Centre in Stamford and vice versa. If this is the case, check out page 20 to see if we can tempt you!

As the Leader of the Council, I am passionate about making the most of our arts, our culture and our heritage. These are the things that attract visitors and make our district such a great place in which to live, work and invest. I was therefore delighted to confirm that South Kesteven District Council will be investing in improvements to the Guildhall over the next three years, as well as a number of other programmes, the creation of a 'heritage quarter' from St Wulfram's Church and, of course, the new cinema.

The Guildhall's diverse programme includes cutting edge contemporary drama from Casson and Friends with 'A Night at the Theatre' and an exploration of dementia with New Perspective's 'Finding Nana' and top music night's with Bellowhead's front man Jon Boden and superior singing star Barbara Dickson. As you know we promote larger events at the Meres in Grantham such as Brendan Cole and Jimmy Carr as well as celebrating 25 years of our Music in Quiet Places concert series, so watch out for more details later in the year!

After the enormous success of the third Georgian Festival in Stamford, don't forget that it's Grantham's turn in 2018, with the stunning Gravity Fields Festival from 26-30 September. Find out more at www.gravityfields.co.uk.

In the meantime, thank you for your patronage and we look forward to seeing you and your family and friends very soon.

King For A Day – the Nat King Cole Story

King for a Day, is the brand new concert from acclaimed jazz vocalist, Atila, celebrating one of the defining voices of the Twentieth Century: Nat 'King' Cole. Featuring world-class live music from Atila and his stellar group of musicians, narration and projected archive images, this is a unique concert celebrating his music.

This thoughtful and entertaining new show takes a fresh look at the life and work of the timeless Nat King Cole - whose vocal styling in songs such as Nature Boy, Unforgettable and When I Fall in Love defined a golden era of music.

Dunkirk (12A)

Dir: Christopher Nolan
Starring: Tom Hardy, Cillian Murphy, Kenneth Branagh

One of the key events of modern British history was the evacuation of thousands of allied soldiers stranded on the beaches of Dunkirk, an astonishing story of heroism, fortitude, and the ferocity of battle.

Spotlight Dance

Spotlight is a Schools dance production. Our ethos and drive is to put Melton Dance onto the stage for all to see. The aim of this show is to unite Melton Dance and to share ideas of work that is taking place across the area. The dances performed will vary from dances created in curriculum lessons, those taught during extra-curricular clubs, adult classes to dances choreographed and developed by performers in their own time.

We are thrilled to be able to continue to offer our dancers this valuable and rewarding experience and continue their journey through dance.

The Nick Ross Orchestra Present Sounds of The Glenn Miller Era

SELLING FAST!

The lights soften, the mood settles. An audience waits for that first moment of sound. The Big Band is poised, relaxed, but with eyes anxious for the lead. And then, as if giving body to an echo, the murmured notes of 'Moonlight Serenade'...and the night, it seems, is suddenly full and timeless. Recapture the sounds of a bygone era as the Nick Ross Orchestra presents 'an unmissable evening of music and song' – the Classic Big Band Sound of the 1940s.

FINDING NANA

New Perspectives in association with LOV

Room 17. Four walls full of lipstick, laughter, hairspray and Horlicks. Nana is nut brown and wrinkled and she has chicken fillets for arms. And she treats me like I'm way more amazing than I actually am.' Set in a seaside hotel of halcyon childhood summers, this autobiographical play by award-winner Jane Upton journeys back to find a beloved Nana before she forgot who she was. Following hit plays Bones, Swimming and All the Little Lights, Finding Nana is about the universal, unconditional love between a granddaughter and her Nana and the ugly truth of losing it all.

Casket Case

Flickbook Theatre

Lightning. Heights. Raw Meat. Bears. Knives. Spiders... and death, obviously. Casket Case is a show about our fear of death, dying and being dead. It's about Jozey, who doesn't really do anything that could possibly, even slightly, increase her risk of dying. Not even putting salt on her chips. Madness. Her anxieties are spiralling out of control and her friends are faced with just two options - kill, or cure. Casket Case is part story, part cabaret, part totally morbid curiosity. After all, none of us are getting out of here alive. Supported by public funding from Arts Council England and commissioned by Lincoln Performing Arts Centre.

Leveret and Spiro

The Eccentric Orbits Tour

Featuring seven of the UK's top instrumentalists in two incredible ensembles, the Eccentric Orbits Tour showcases the unique and distinctive music of Leveret and Spiro in a show that will fly the flag for new English instrumental music. The two groups share much of the same raw material – tunes from a handful of 18th-century tunebooks, as well as original compositions – but their musical orbits follow widely divergent paths. Leveret rely on their mutual trust and intuition to create their music entirely in the moment – there are no arrangements and the focus shifts constantly and compellingly between three masters of their instruments.

Croagh Rua

Croagh Rua are back, and it promises to be another very special and compelling celebration of Irish music and song from Belfast's favourites.

This exciting acoustic four-piece take a refreshing un-pretentious and uncommonly skilled run at some of the greatest music in the world. Croagh Rua (pronounced Crave Ru-ah) play Irish Traditional Music from the heart. A rich sound, acoustic driven, this is traditional Celtic fare at its finest, mixing rousing jigs, reels and polkas with tender ballads and airs. Driven by uilleann pipes, fiddle, whistles and the exciting banjo and mandolin playing of group founder Brian Connolly with passionate vocals from Jim Rainey.

WAR OF THE WORLDS

The Pantaloons

"No one would have believed in the last years of the nineteenth century that this world was being watched keenly and closely by intelligences greater than man's..." Fewer would have believed in the first years of the twenty-first century that H. G. Wells' sci-fi classic would be performed live by four actors with intelligences lesser than average.

The Pantaloons invade the stage in this funny new adaptation as they use musical instruments, puppetry and, um, enthusiasm to recreate deadly heat-rays, giant fighting-machines, squidgy tentacled Martians and interplanetary warfare on an epic scale. The chances of success? A million to one...

See How They Run

St Peter's Hill Players

A comedy/ farce by Philip King. It is 1943. In the vicarage of Merton-Cum-Middlewick we find Penelope, an ex-actress, and her husband, Reverend Lionel Toop. Miss Skillon, a churchgoer, comes to complain about Penelope's latest 'outrages', before Lionel leaves, on business, for the night.

An old co-star of Penelope's, L/Cpl Clive Winton arrives to invite Penelope out. To dodge army regulations he puts on one of Lionel's suits, dog-collar and all!

Add to this; a bishop and vicar who arrive early, a cockney maid, a bottle of cooking sherry and a German POW disguised as...a vicar! Who is the real Lionel? Ask Penelope, can't we?

2.00pm showing with subtitles for hard of hearing and d/Deaf audiences.

Ballet Central

Under the artistic direction of Christopher Marney, Ballet Central returns with a new programme showcasing the best in dance theatre. These young dancers on the cusp of their professional careers will perform works by world-renowned choreographers.

See Jenna Lee's brand new creation Black Swan, a dark twist on the iconic classic, and a gothic reworking of the 'Fairies prologue' from Matthew Bourne's Sleeping Beauty. An excerpt from Far by the multi award-winning choreographer and director Wayne McGregor will also feature and the work of Kenneth MacMillan is included with an excerpt from his rarely-seen Valley of Shadows. And finally, enjoy Christopher Gable's Cinderella, a timeless version of a much-loved fairy tale.

Jekyll & Hyde the Musical! The epic struggle between good and evil comes to life on stage in the musical phenomenon, Jekyll & Hyde. An evocative tale of two men – one, a doctor, passionate and romantic; the other, a terrifying madman – and two women – one, beautiful and trusting; the other, beautiful and trusting only herself – both women in love with the same man and both unaware of his dark secret. He makes himself the subject of his own experiments, accidentally unleashing his inner demons along with the man that the world would come to know as Mr. Hyde.

Barbara Dickson

In this special acoustic performance Barbara Dickson and her pianist Nick Holland explore her catalogue of songs at an intimate level. The pair let the words and melodies take 'centre stage' as they perform a wonderful range of material drawing on Barbara's folk roots, contemporary greats, and some of her classic hits.

Emerging from the Scottish folk scene of the late 1960's Barbara had enjoyed mainstream chart success with hits including 'Answer Me', 'Another Suitcase in Another Hall', 'Caravan' and the million-selling number one single, 'I Know Him So Well'. As Scotland's best-selling female album artist she has earned 6 platinum, 11 gold and 7 silver albums and cemented her status as one of the UK's best-loved performers. Her stage career has included the roles of the original Mrs Johnstone in Willy Russell's long-running musical, 'Blood Brothers' and as Viv Nicholson in 'Spend Spend Spend', both of which have won her an Olivier award for 'Best Actress'. Barbara was awarded an O.B.E. by Her Majesty the Queen in the 2002 New Year's Honours for her services to music and drama and she continues to record and to play to sold-out audiences.

Nick Holland joined Barbara's touring band in the mid 2000's playing keyboards and adding vocals on her 'Full Circle' album. Barbara and Nick recently started working as a 'duo' where she plays guitar and piano, and Nick on keyboards –and adding harmonies to Barbara's own wonderful vocals.

From 26 – 30 September 2018, Grantham's biennial Gravity Fields Festival of arts & science will be back for its fourth edition, taking over the streets of Grantham to celebrate our link to Isaac Newton, the man who changed science and the world for ever! This year's theme is 'Voyages of Discovery' and the festival will also be celebrating another Lincolnshire scientist, Joseph Banks, the botanist who set sail for Australia on board HMS Endeavour with Captain Cook exactly 250 years ago.

With 5 days of talks, demos, discussions, performances, events, exhibitions, workshops and concerts, plus a spectacular street event on the Saturday night, there are plenty of ways that you and your organisation, community group or school can get involved.

To find out more email j.dobbs@southkesteven.gov.uk and to keep up-to-date follow the Festival on Facebook & Twitter and visit www.gravityfields.co.uk The full 2018 programme will be available from April...
