COUNCIL

Welcome

We are so excited to unveil our highly anticipated Autumn/Winter program. From funny family shows to big band music, our theatre season is set to ignite your imagination and leave you wanting more!

We have an incredible line up of musical performances this season, guaranteed to make your toes tap. We have some fantastic 80s music including well known 80s band A Flock of Seagulls, who will be joining us in September performing some of their hit songs.

Looking ahead to Christmas time, we have some fantastic, festive performances to get you in the Christmas spirit. Neil Sands will be returning in November with his highly anticipated show Christmas Memories. We also have the Nick Ross Orchestra performing some special Christmas big band arrangements later in the month. We're thrilled to announce that not only will Polka Dot Pantomimes be back for another year, but we've also extended their run into the new year! We now have 5 weeks of pantomime fun available, so make sure you book your tickets for Aladdin quick as tickets sell fast! Perhaps you are looking to introduce your children to the world of theatre? We strive to offer a variety of performances, created to entertain and engage children. In September, Splash Test Dummies will be performing their splash splashing circus set! Full of laughter and fun for the whole family. Rhubarb Theatre will also be with us at the end of October with Finding Chester. This is a great comedy show and a wonderful introduction to puppetry, mask, dance and song.

We look forward to welcoming you,

The Guildhall Arts Centre Team

On behalf of South Kesteven District Council

A MATTER OF TIME (CHANTRY DANCE)

Chantry Dance presents A Matter Of Time - a mesmerising triple bill exploring our relationship with time created by award-winning producers and choreographers Rae Piper and Paul Chantry in collaboration with innovative director-choreographer Kristian Cunningham.

'Ghost Dances' is danced to Nicholas Maw's 1988 suite. A woman journeys through the past, present and future where the allusive 'ghosts' of the title are her fractured dreams and memories. She learns to reconcile the uncertainty of the future with lessons of the past to fully appreciate the present. This triple bill also features 'Ariadne's Lament' and 'In Time Of Daffodils'. Parental guidance advised: contains nudity, scenes of a sexual nature, violence

AN EVENING WITH AGGERS

Jonathan Agnew moved seamlessly from the cricket commentary box to the stage in 2013 when he appeared in a number of shows with Sir Geoffrey Boycott. For the past six years, Jonathan has also enjoyed flying solo and people have laughed, listened with rapt attention and been moved by this master broadcaster, live in theatres all over the country across the land, whether or not they are lovers of the game. So, join Aggers as he recounts wonderful tales from a highly entertaining career on the field and in the box. With film footage, audio clips and photographs on our big screen, audiences are treated to great sporting action, hilarious anecdotes and brilliant Boycott-baiting wind-ups!

A FLOCK OF SEAGULLS

The group released an EP and a couple of singles, Its Not Me Talking and Telecommunication on Bill Nelson's 'Cocteau' label; both tracks produced by Nelson. In 1982 the group's third single, produced by Mike Howlett I Ran (So Far Away) became a worldwide hit, most notably reaching number 1 in Australia and the top 10 in the US and New Zealand (where the band became popular).

The parent album 'A Flock of Seagulls' and another single, 'Space Age Love Song', were also successful. In late 1982 the band found major success in their home country with 'Wishing (If I Had a Photograph of You)', which reached the top 10. As it turned out, 1982 would prove to be the peak year of their commercial and critical success.

BOTHERED AND BEWILDERED (ST PETER'S HILL PLAYERS)

Losing your grip on life can be confusing... even amusing! A bittersweet comedy, involving Irene and her two daughters, Louise and Beth, as they lose their mum in spirit but not in body, struggling with her Alzheimer's.

Irene's passion for romantic literature blurs with reality. She seeks advice about her 'memory book' with her imaginary friend and favourite romantic novelist, the now deceased Barbara Cartland.

"A poignant play, with the right amount of humour. A brave look at a difficult and topical subject."

ANDY IRVINE

Andy Irvine is one of the great Irish singers, his voice one of a handful of truly great ones that gets to the very soul of Ireland. He has been hailed as "a tradition in himself." Musician, singer and songwriter, Andy has maintained his highly individual performing skills throughout his over 50-year career. From Sweeney's Men in the mid-60s, to the enormous success of Planxty in the 70s, his duo with Paul Brady in the later 70s and then from Patrick Street to Mozaik, LAPD and Usher's Island, Andy has been a world music pioneer and an icon for traditional music and musicians.

Although an integral part of the finest Irish bands of our time, Andy Irvine continues along the path he set for himself so long ago - a vibrant career as a solo artist in the old style, a teller of tales and maker of music.

SIMON EVANS: HAVE WE MET?

After finally solving the mystery of his existence and true identity in Work of the Devil, Simon finds that he has still not overcome the more daily challenges of remembering what he came upstairs for, who these grown-ups are that live with him (and what they have done with his children?) and how can that footage be from 2009, when he only bought those shoes a few months ago?

"In Greek mythology, the Muses were the daughters of Mnemosyne, goddess of memory - though ironically, there is no easy way to remember her name. But Memory was thus clearly regarded by the ancient Greeks as the mother of the arts, wellspring of inspiration, the compost in which imagination takes root. Our last defense against tyranny, the consolation of the just and the seat of the soul. Without memory, the illusion of self crumbles. Mine, however, is shot. So where does that leave me?"

WEDNESDAY 15TH – SATURDAY 18TH NOVEMBER, 7:30PM

BLEAK EXPECTATIONS (GRANTHAM DRAMATIC SOCIETY)

Leave logic at home and escape with a very silly romp through the Dickensian universe. Follow half-orphan Pip Bin as he ricochets across Dickensian England, attempting to evade his evil nemesis Mr Gently Benevolent. Can Pip, his sisters Pippa and Poppy, and best friend Harry Biscuit overcome hardship and misfortune to secure their own happy ending?

If you can't already tell, this is a lovingly ludicrous parody of Charles Dickens, complete with extravagant names, quintessentially British reactions to disaster and heart-fluttering romance. Based on the award-winning BBC Radio 4 series, this play is fresh from the West End and GDS has secured another regional premiere.

£12 (£10 concessions) £10 groups of 6+

THURSDAY 23RD NOVEMBER, 7:30PM

THE NICK ROSS ORCHESTRA - THE GLENN MILLER & RAT PACK ERA 'IN THE CHRISTMAS MOOD'

The lights soften, the mood settles. An audience waits for that first moment of sound. The Big Band is poised, relaxed, but with eyes anxious for the lead. And then, as if giving body to an echo, the murmured notes of 'Moonlight Serenade'...and the night, it seems, is suddenly full and timeless.

Recapture the sounds of a bygone era as the Nick Ross Orchestra presents 'an unmissable evening of music and song' – the Classic Big Band Sound of the 40s & 50s with a liberal "sprinkling" of very special Christmas Big Band arrangements.
